

Proudly presents

Dr David Sitzer

Of the Chicago School of Professional Psychology

Speaking on

“STRATEGIES FOR OVERCOMING
COGNITIVE DEFICITS IN SCHIZOPHRENIA”

Dr Sitzer chairs the Clinical Psychology Department at the Chicago School of Professional Psychology in LA. He is the co-director of the Neurobehavioral Healthcare Center. He is a clinical neuropsychologist and specializes in assisting people with schizophrenia function more independently

Wednesday November 18, 2009

7:00PM at the Edelman Center located at the SW corner of Olympic and Sepulveda in the first floor auditorium. Support meeting follows speaker

Free and open to all members of the community for more info contact the NAMI office at 310 889-7200